2022 Holiday 23 Fun Worlds

Port Owen Yacht Club in association with Charlies Brewhouse of Port Owen and the Holiday 23 Class Owners Association (Western Cape) are pleased to announce that the 2022 Charlies Brewhouse Holiday 23 Fun Worlds will be held in St Helena Bay over the Easter weekend this year, 15 – 18 April.

The focus is on having fun with your boat so the races are short, the cruising interesting, the meals famous and the camaraderie memorable.

THE SAILING PROGRAMME: A more detailed sailing programme will be published by the end of February but will include the following.

- A “tune up” race will be held on the afternoon of Thursday 14th April.
- A series of 6 or 8 short round the buoys races interspersed with one or two medium distance races (6 – 8 miles).
- An “optional” overnight on anchor somewhere in St Helena Bay (weather permitting).
- There will be no racing on Monday 18th. A full breakfast will be followed by Prize giving.

THE CATERING PROGRAMME:

- Breakfasts will be provided daily at 08:00 starting from Thursday morning 14 April at a cost of R 70.00 per head for adults and R45.00 per head for children under 12 years. Breakfast will typically consist of bacon or sausage and egg with tomato, toast, tea or coffee.
- Dinners will be provided daily at 19:00 from Thursday evening 14 April at a cost of R95.00 per head for adults and R 65.00 per head for children under 12 years. Dinners will be different each night with a view to catering to a range of tastes.
- If you have any special requests in respect of meals please contact Ingrid on inkscarbs@gmail.com

ENTRY FEE: R500.00 per boat and R 250.00 per crew member including the skipper.

Trustees: F. Stuyck (President), G Heiberg (Trustee), T Waters (Trustee)
